

GIGANTIC STRUGGLE IN CARPATHIANS NEARING
THE DECISIVE STAGEOnrushing Muscovites Threaten Disaster to Austrian Army by Cutting Off Its Right Wing.

PETROGRAD, APRIL 9.—THE GIGANTIC CONFLICT BETWEEN THE RUSSIANS AND THE AUSTRO-GERMANS IN THE CARPATHIAN MOUNTAINS, ENGAGING OVER A MILLION MEN AND 6,000 FIELD GUNS, IS DRAWING TO THE DECISIVE STAGE. THE RUSSIANS ARE ADVANCING OVER A FIFTY-MILE FRONT FROM THE TOPLA RIVER TO USZOK PASS, BUT THE FIGHTING IS PROGRESSING OVER A BATTLE LINE OVER 100 MILES LONG. BOTH SIDES HAVE WITHDRAWN ALL AVAILABLE FORCES FROM POLAND, TO STRENGTHEN THEIR ARMIES IN THE CARPATHIANS.

HAVING TAKEN SMOLNIK, THE RUSSIANS ARE NOW IN POSITION TO LAUNCH A DRIVE AGAINST THE REAR OF THE AUSTRIANS, WHO ARE FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO STEM THE RUSSIAN ADVANCE THROUGH USZOK PASS.

SNOW, COLD AND FOGS ARE MAKING OPERATIONS ON THE BORDER OF Bessarabia and Bukovina EXTREMELY DIFFICULT. THE RUSSIANS ARE FIGHTING VERY HARD, HOPING TO COMPEL THE AUSTRIANS TO WEAKEN THEIR CARPATHIAN FORCES BY RE-ENFORCEMENTS FROM THAT LOCALITY, BUT SO FAR THE AUSTRIANS HAVE HELD THEIR OWN IN THE BORDER CONFLICTS ALREADY THERE.

THE CZAR'S SOLDIERS WHO ARE NOW POURING THROUGH THE CARPATHIANS, UPKOW AND ROSTOK PASSES THREATEN TO CUT OFF THE AUSTRIAN WING OF THE AUSTRIAN ARMY UNDER GENERAL VOENOVICH.

THE PROGRAM WAS IN CHARGE OF MRS. EMMA FREEMAN,
CHAIRMAN OF THE ART COMMITTEE.

Thursday was "Art Day" at the Palmetto club, and the program was in charge of Mrs. Emma Freeman, chairman of the art committee. In spite of its being near the end of the season, and the weather most enticing for outdoor amusements, a good sized audience of interested women gathered at the clubhouse to hear the excellent program.

Preceding the program, announcement was made of the card party at the Elks' club next Saturday afternoon for the benefit of St. Mary's hospital. It was decided to have Rev. J. J. Hall, of Atlanta, a director of the American Peace society, come to Daytona to deliver his famous lecture, "What I Saw and Learned in the War Zone." This lecture will be given some time during April, date to be announced later.

MRS. E. G. RAGON AND PARTY DEPART IN SPECIAL CAR

Mrs. E. G. Ragon and party, season guests at the Clarendon hotel, departed Thursday afternoon in the special Pullman car "Cordero" via the Atlantic Coast Line and Dixie Flyer for Evansville, Ind.

R. L. Collins, of Umatilla, an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Humphries, visited them from Wednesday until Thursday at their home on South Ridgewood avenue, stopping over at this place on his return from Havana, Cuba, where he had been attending the Willard-Johnson contest.

"ART DAY" WITH PALMETTO CLUB

It was announced that the last club card party of the season would be held in the Palmetto clubhouse next Tuesday afternoon, April 13th, for members and guests of the club.

Miss Ruth Coryell, of Toronto, a talented young violinist who has been spending the season in this vicinity, vored the audience with a splendid solo, "Canzonetta," by Ambrosia, playing with wonderful tone and phrasing. To insistent applause she responded graciously with the "Minuet," by Beethoven, which displayed new beauties in this young musician's technique. She was accompanied by Miss Ella Louise Wilmaire in her usual faultless manner.

Mrs. Freeman introduced Mrs. Frost, chairman of the art department of the Florida State Federation, who gave an interesting address concerning the work now being done by her department. Some practical things which were suggested were: An effort to secure legislation which will remedy the billboard nuisance; an endeavor to induce railroads to keep stations and approaches to towns along the route of tourist travel in an inviting condition; a censorship of moving picture films; bringing traveling art collections of pottery, paintings, arts and crafts work; educational slides to be shown at picture shows; and the purchase of magazines and books on art for public libraries, so as to bring about a better acquaintance between the public and artists. A course in architecture was suggested to improve public taste in building homes for people of modest means, such as the 10 designs furnished by the North Carolina federation. Mrs. Frost's talk was very interesting and practical and the club was indeed fortunate in having the opportunity to hear it.

Miss Varney pleased her hearers so well with her reading, "A Sisterly Scheme," that she was forced to respond with "A Butterfly's Fad." Miss Varney's delivery is natural, her enunciation clear and her voice and gestures a delight.

Mrs. Emma Freeman's paper on art showed careful study and research and a love for the subject. The history of art was traced through medieval and modern times, country by country, beginning with Italy, home of painting, with its churches and galleries, noting especially those of the Vatican and showing the speaker's intimate knowledge of Italian art and artists. French art is of long standing, and all America knows Bouguereau, Meissonier and Rosa Bonheur and their wonderful productions. England was for a long time dependent upon the continent for artists. Holbein, coming to England in the time of Henry VIII. Later came her own great artists, First, Hogarth, Reynolds and Gainsborough, painters of portraits; later the landscape artists, Turner, Millan, Leighton, and then Landseer, painter of animals, and Rossetti, illustrator of poems and books.

American artists, so long without appreciation at home, compelled to live abroad where their works are given places in the greatest galleries, are at last coming into their own.

Miss Coryell played again with exquisite effect, giving MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," and to insistent applause, "Madrigal," to the delight of her hearers.

Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Chamberlin acted as hostesses of the day.

AUCTION SALE OF LOTS WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL

E. H. Herrick was well pleased with the result of the auction sale of lots in Herrick Terrace, Port Orange, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. As previously stated, eight lots were sold the first day of the sale and on Wednesday 12 more lots were sold, making a total of 20 lots in all. There was a large attendance on both days. Tomorrow Mr. Herrick will have a sale of lots at Ormond.

*The essay contest and the awarding of prizes to the successful contestants in the L. T. L. will take place at the Baptist church tonight at 7:30.

G. Edgerton has commenced the erection of a six-room bungalow for his son-in-law, Clark Richardson, on the latter's lot at the corner of Ridgewood and Michigan avenues. The bungalow will be built on the rear of the lot, fronting on Michigan avenue, leaving Ridgewood front clear for another house.

JACKSONVILLE GETS 1916 ELKS' MEETING

Jacksonville gets the 1916 convention of the Florida State association of B. P. O. Elks. That was the decision Thursday at the Palatka convention.

Daytona was among the numerous other Florida cities that put in a bid for the next meeting, and received support that made her a most formidable aspirant for the honor of entertaining the association when it assembles again. Jacksonville also had a strong backing, and the representatives from Daytona, rather than participate in a scramble, withdrew this city's name from further consideration. Following this, the chief city of Florida was unanimously chosen.

Daytona was numerous represented at the Palatka convention by members of lodge No. 1141, and every one of them are enthusiastic in their praise of the Putnam county capital's entertaining ability, which was demonstrated in unforgettable fashion.

THE COSTUME RECITAL WAS PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT

The costume recital by C. Garvin Gilmain, given in social hall of the Congregational church, Thursday evening for the benefit of the Christian Endeavor society of that church, was well attended and a very pleasant entertainment. In addition to the character acting of Mr. Gilmain, who is excellent in his profession, there were two piano selections by Miss Norma Williams, a piano duet by Miss Elizabeth Brachhold and Mr.
Scott and two tenor solos by Charles Wilson, which were greatly enjoyed by the audience. In one of his parts Mr. Gilmain was assisted by a quartet behind the scenes, composed of Miss Brachhold, Miss Nellie Stilling, Will Stilling, and Mr. Scott and Miss Brachhold also sang "Dreaming" from behind the scenes. In the parts of Sir Peter and Lady Teasdale in the "School for Scandal," Mr. Gilmain was assisted by Miss Lucille Mitchell.
Mr. Wilson's solos were "The Rosary" and "The Perfect Day." Mr. Gilmain, who is a character actor of more than ordinary ability, has taken part in several entertainments in Daytona in the past few weeks and many complimentary things are said of his work.
Mrs. Wm. Roxby was the accompanist for the evening.

CARD OF THANKS.
I wish to thank all the friends who assisted me in the recent Gazette-News contest. MAUD KLOCK.

A. B. MOORE AND AN "INDIAN" DO A BIT OF "EXPLORING"

At the west end of the North bridge where the approach more or less abruptly curves, there is a half-moon shaped patch of nice, oozy, slimy, slushy black mud just off the causeway. The sticky mess stays right there, serene and inoffensive, bothering nobody who does not bother it; but just let some meddlesome traveler leave the highway and go off on an exploring expedition of that mud's territory! There'll be tribulation aplenty—for the explorer, especially if he sallies forth on a motorcycle and is too hasty about getting started.

Gene Johnson has a motorcycle—an "Indian"—which has recently been undergoing a general overhauling and dressing up at Johnson's Beach street shop. This done, the "Indian" felt so good that it got to "rearin' to go," a state of fitness that Albert B.
Moore rather encouraged. The up-shot of the dual conspiracy was that the gasoline-drinking steed pranced out of the shop and scooted up Beach street Thursday afternoon, with Moore astride its quivering back, urging, "lashing" it on and on to still greater speed.

THE WEATHER.

Florida: Generally fair tonight
Saturday. Moderate east winds.

As to Flattery.

J. G. Holland declared that a whom it is proper to praise cannot flattered, and the man who can flattered ought not to be praised.
This is an extreme saying and ignores a common human weakness and assumes a strength of mind possess. As great a man as Gladstone was often "morally intoxicated" flattery; George Eliot did her work under the unreasonable praise her husband and the exaggerpraise of his Kitty, who believed in the greatest of men and did not be-tate to tell him so, unquestionstrengthened the erstwhile leader, Parnell, to action, even occasionally unsteady his reason.
